Clayton Utz is one of Australia's largest and most successful law firms. The firm is committed to consistently achieving superior outcomes for its clients by devising innovative solutions to legal and commercial challenges.

Our lawyers are results driven, commercially savvy and recognised as bona fide leaders in their respective practice areas. Fundamental to the firm's philosophy are its practical approach to clients' work, a thorough understanding of their business, and partner accessibility.

Clayton Utz lawyers practice widely in the fields of capital markets and securities law, commercial litigation and dispute resolution, competition law, construction and major projects, corporate law, corporatization and privatization, energy and resources, health law, insolvency, insurance law, intellectual property law, international arbitration, managed investments, mergers and acquisitions, pharmaceutical and medical devices, private equity, product liability, property law, planning and environmental law, tax and pensions, trade law, and workplace relations and employment law.

Clients of Clayton Utz include public and private corporations based in Australia, Asia, Europe and north America; banks, investment banks and other financial institutions; governments; mining and resources companies; power and utilities; manufacturers; stockbrokers and accounting and other professional firms. The firm also has an extensive practice advising federal and state government departments and agencies throughout Australia.

The firm regularly advises overseas corporations on strategies and structures for investing and doing business in Australia and handles foreign acquisitions and sales on behalf of local clients and multinationals. The firm's strong sense of corporate responsibility is reflected in its globally recognised pro-bono practice, our Clayton Utz Foundation and community volunteering program.

Established in 1833, Clayton Utz has approximately 950 lawyers, which includes over 200 partners. In addition to our legal team, there are 740 support staff.
