Ali Budiardjo, Nugroho, Reksodiputro was established in 1967. It presently consists of 61 Indonesian lawyers, two Dutch lawyers and one Australian lawyer. The firm, often called "ABNR," is one of Indonesia's largest independent full-service law firms. ABNR is principally engaged in the provision of legal services to foreign companies, banks and international institutions operating or setting up business in Indonesia, as well as to Indonesian enterprises contracting with foreign companies and institutions or with other Indonesian companies.

ABNR specializes in the handling of matters in various fields, including joint ventures, investment, corporate, mergers and acquisitions, anti-trust, project finance, capital markets, licensing, banking and finance, derivatives/ISDA transactions, private power, energy, mining, construction, shipping/maritime law, aviation, labor law, bankruptcy, restructuring, privatization, information technology, telecommunications, environment, real estate and intellectual property. The firm has an outstanding reputation in handling complex and multi-faceted cross-border transactions.

The commitment we make to clients is to provide broad-based, personalized service from top quality teams of lawyers with international experience that includes groundbreaking deals and projects. ABNR's reputation has been recognized around the world by independent industry surveys and law firm guides. Some of the recent awards and recognitions that the firm has received are as follows: Pacific Business Press Asian-Counsel "Firm of the Year 2009" in Indonesia jurisdiction for four categories: Alternative Investment Funds, Intellectual Property, Real Estate, and Most Responsive Firm.

Pacific Business Press Asian-Counsel "Deal of the Year 2008" for the issuance of US$2.2 billion bond by the Government of Republic of Indonesia International Financial Law Review (IFLR) Asia Awards 2009 for the Tanjung Jati expansion project as "Project Finance Deal of the Year".

ABNR has a number of partners and foreign counsels who are recognized by Chambers Asia 2009, Asia Pacific Legal 500 2008/09, Which Lawyer 2009, and IFLR 1000 2010 as leading individuals in their fields. A number of our lawyers actively participate in the reformation of the judicial system, academic and university life, and are the authors of numerous publications, thus contributing to the evolution and dissemination of the law in Indonesia.
