SyCip Salazar Hernandez & Gatmaitan is the largest law firm in the Philippines, with its principal office in Makati, the financial and business center of Metropolitan Manila, and branch offices in Cebu City and Davao City in Southern Philippines and at the Subic Bay Freeport Zone. Although the firm's practice centers on business activities, it has, since its founding, offered a broad and integrated range of legal services that cover such areas as family relations, constitutional issues, and other matters of law unrelated to commerce.

As of January 1, 2008, the firm had a legal staff of 113 including four of-counsel and senior counsel and 18 legal assistants qualifying for admission to the bar.

The firm's practice is diversified, as reflected in its seven principal departments: Special Projects, Litigation, Banking, Finance & Securities, Corporate Services, Intellectual Property and Tax. Within this structure, certain of the firm's lawyers are involved in further fields of specialization, such as power and energy, mining and natural resources, acquisitions, immigration, shipping, and maritime law. Four of the firm's partners are admitted to the New York bar.

The firm represents enterprises in many fields, including construction, energy, manufacturing, mining, banking, and financial services. In addition to domestic, foreign, and multinational business corporations, the firm represents individuals, non-profit institutions, governments, and multilateral organizations.
